Background to Today's Readings: (for preparation before the service or study at home)
ACTS 1:6-14. With Jesus gone from their midst and the promised kingdom of the Messiah not yet a reality, what was to happen next? The power of God that was at work in Jesus had now passed to the assembled community of men and women who followed him from Galilee to Jerusalem, had witnessed to his resurrection, and now formed a visible community of faith awaiting his return. The church is still that visible community of today.
Psalm 47 This psalm is a hymn celebrating God's enthronement as king of all nations. It probably dates from the days of David or of Solomon. It summons all people everywhere to praise the God of Israel as king
1 PETER 4:12-14; 5:6-11. A threatened persecution seemed close at hand. The writer encouraged the faithful to remain steadfast after the example of Jesus in his suffering. The hope of the afflicted rested on the promise of the constant presence of Christ who had called them to share his glory. The beauty and resolute faith of the passage still strengthen modern disciples of Jesus who may well grow weary in a violent and unbelieving world.
JOHN 17:1-11. At the heart of this passage is the essential message of John's Gospel: Jesus has been fully revealed as the Messiah/Christ, the Son of God with all divine authority and power. As such he gives the eternal life of God to those who believe in his true nature now glorified by the resurrection.

Thank you to everyone who helped to make the Chicken BBQ a fun day and a successful fundraiser. We realized a profit of $3104.

Offerings for May (a five week month) excluding those designated for the Building Fund and PWRDF, totaled $12,818. An average monthly offerings total of $13,688 is required in order that our budget be met. After a year (2010) in which a deficit of $2,000 in our operating account was incurred, we began 2011 with a balance of $14,090. The balance at the end of May, which includes the funds raised by the BBQ (see above), is $9,778. This demonstrates an operating loss of $4,312 for the first five months of the year.

A Reading from the Book of Acts

So when they had come together, the apostles asked Jesus, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers. Acts 1:6-14

A Reading from the First Letter of Peter

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen. 1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed. I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.” John 17:1–11
