Background to Today's Readings: (for preparation before the service or study at home)

Acts 17:22-31 On his second missionary journey, Paul has crossed Asia Minor (modern Turkey) and has arrived in Athens, a city known for its interest in the divine and for its openness to discussion of philosophies and religions. He now tells the good news to those gathered at the edge of the marketplace.

1 Peter 3:13-22 The author has exhorted his readers to live ethical lives and not to repay evil for evil. They face persecution for their faith. He asks: who will weaken your faith or cause you to lose it all together?

John 14:15-21 Jesus has told his followers of his impending departure from them. He has told them that he is going, through resurrection and ascension, to the Father, to prepare a place of permanent fellowship for them. He will return to take them there, a place where there is ample room for as many as believe.

Be joy-ful in God, all you lands.

Welcome! We are glad that you have come to worship with us this morning. If you are looking for a spiritual home and wish to be added to our mailing list please fill out the blue card found in front of each pew and place on the offering plate.

Please Join Us in the church hall for baking & refreshments following the 10 a.m. service. You may enter the hall through the doors at the front left hand side of the church. Wheelchair accessible restrooms can be found in the lobby.

First Response will assist in case of an emergency during the liturgies this morning. The person available today is Barb Smith. (This is the person responsible for assisting anyone in difficulty).

Sunday School takes place in the church hall at 9:45 a.m. Visiting youth are always welcome. A Supervised Nursery is available for babies and children under the age of four. Go out the left hand door, through the office and turn right to the end of the hallway.

Today's Eucharistic Prayer is from a book of Supplementary Eucharistic Prayers approved by General Synod in 1998 and used by permission of the Bishop. These have been used previously at Emmanuel. The card on which this prayer is printed should remain in the church, so please leave it behind when you take your leaflet home.

Thank you to Joan Wahay and all those who contributed their time and talent toward yesterday's Chicken Barbecue. Your hard work is appreciated.

Emmanuel's New Website and Email Address Please visit our exciting new website (not totally complete yet) to see the work that has been done. Our office email address has changed as well. The website is emmanuelanglican.ca and our new email address is office@emmanuelanglican.ca. Thanks to Rob Cross and Dan Perfitt for their work.

The Summer Newsletter is being distributed soon. If you would like to submit any articles or notices please contact the church office by June 3rd.

Concert By The Cathedral Girls Choir to celebrate Emmanuel's 150th will be held today at 4 p.m. Note that this is a Concert and not a service. We are very fortunate to have a choir of this quality coming to Arnprior. In 2012 they will be singing in Westminster Abbey and Canterbury Cathedral. There will be a free will offering. Please plan to attend and bring friends.

Prayer Group meets tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. New members welcome. Contact Bernice Strong at 613-623-6253.

Prayers for the Departed At present the Prayers for the Departed during our Liturgy include a large number of names each Sunday. It is normal for the Prayers for the Departed to include those who have died in the past week, either parishioners or friends and relatives of parishioners, whose names are placed by request. If a funeral is conducted by the Parish Clergy, the names of the deceased will always be printed for the following Sunday. However, it is uncommon to have a "standing list" of names to be used weekly. It would be better if these names were added by request for a specific Sunday. If there are names you wish to have placed in these prayers, please submit them to the Church Office during the previous week. It is not required that the names be of parishioners or Anglicans. You may also wish to donate flowers and have the names included in the leaflet. You are invited to remember in silence those whose names are important to you.

Anglican Church Women (ACW) Meeting All women of the congregation are invited to join the ACW for their last meeting before the summer on Tuesday, June 7th. They will be meeting at Galilee at 4:30 p.m. Dinner-$20. Please notify Margaret Schuler (613-622-5437) by Friday June 3rd if you plan to attend.

Preauthorized Remittance (PAR) is available for your church offerings. Pick up an information brochure or contact Envelope Secretary, Mary Coreau (613-623-6692).

READINGS FOR THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 29, 2011

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown God.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.' Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead." Acts 17:22-31

A Reading from the First Letter of Peter

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defence to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him. 1 Peter 3:13-22

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them."

John 14:15–21
