

HARVEST THANKSGIVING

October 9, 2011

Emmanuel Anglican Church
287 Harrington Street
Arnprior, Ontario, K7S 2V2

Collect Creator of the fruitful earth, you made us stewards of all things. Give us grateful hearts for all your goodness, and steadfast wills to use your bounty well, that the whole human family, today and in generations to come, may with us give thanks for the riches of your creation. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever.

Everyone is welcome to receive Holy Communion

Background to Today's Readings: (for preparation before the service or study at home)

DEUTERONOMY 8:7-18. This lesson lifts up two elements of thanksgiving sacred to all humanity: a land of great productivity celebrating the providence of God to Israel; and keeping the celebration permanently meaningful by obedience to God's covenant.

PSALM 65. Worshipping in the temple, the psalmist expressed gratitude for the freedom and providence with which God has blessed Israel. He called on others also to stand in awe of the Lord of all creation and join in the jubilation of God's chosen people.

2 CORINTHIANS 9:6-15. Paul asked the Corinthians to contribute generously to a collection he was making to help the Christian community in Jerusalem, then suffering from famine. In doing so, he gave a still valid lesson in good stewardship. It rests on an appreciation and thanksgiving for a new relationship with God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Paul's metaphors for generosity were from the seedtime and harvest seasons. He may also have had Deuteronomy 15:7-11 in mind which outlined the need to help the poor. He then quoted Psalm 112:9 which he took as a description of the generous person.

LUKE 17:11-19. This incident reflects the hostile relationship between Jews and Samaritans. The main emphasis, however, is on the gratitude of the one Samaritan leper whom Jesus cleansed along with the other nine, who presumably were Jews like Jesus.

READINGS FOR HARVEST THANKSGIVING

October 9, 2011

A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you. Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, “My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.” But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Deuteronomy 8:7–18

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, “He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.” He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift! 2 Corinthians 9:6–15

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Luke 17:11–19
